DUVIL JACKY PREPARES TO COMPLETE HIS STUDIES

Duvil Jacky is preparing to complete his studies in July 2019. As part of his completion process, Brother Adolph sat down with Duvil and asked him to share what his experience has been like.

“I arrived at the Sant after the request was made by my godfather, Brother Joseph Accilien, a member of the Little Brother of Incarnation. I spent about a month here before being accepted into the program in 2014. Over the past four years, the Sant has helped me financially with food, healthcare and other living expenses. I have also learned to understand and appreciate my fellow residents in the community. Spiritually, I learned more by prayer and days of reflection. This experience has deepened my appreciation for community life. It has also prepared me for leadership in my local village. So, I give thanks to the Xaverian Brothers for their good works!”

Jean-Yvon is working on his drawing technique. He is studying Civil Engineering at the Technology Institute in Haiti.

Your continued support is what allows Brothers Joseph, Vincent and Adolph to provide the accompaniment that these young men receive to improve life for themselves and for Haiti.

MÈSI, BONDYE, MÈSI; THANK YOU, GOD, THANK YOU.
