

SANT ZAVERYEN NEWSLETTER

XAVERIAN BROTHERS HAITI MINISTRY

August 2018

In this issue of the Sant Newsletter, Brother Joseph meets with the Haitian Conference of Religious as they say goodbye to their chairman. We also share with you the story of two Sant residents: Belardet who is expanding his knowledge of journalism with a visit to the newspaper in Port-au-Prince and Bernadin, a future engineer, and what he is learning about this semester. All of this is possible with the support of our faithful donors!

THE HAITIAN CONFERENCE OF RELIGIOUS

Last year Brother Edward Driscoll, General Superior, asked Brother Joseph to represent the Xaverian Brothers at the Haitian Conference of Religious. Over the summer, the group meet and said good bye to the chairman of the conference, Brother Hervé Zamor, who was elected as General Superior of the Brothers of Christian Instruction. As our mission expands in Haiti, with the addition of two more Brothers, it is important that we interact with other Religious and the Catholic church in Haiti.

STUDENT UPDATES

Sant resident, Belardet Brisseau, who is studying journalism, visited Le Nouvelliste, the newspaper in Port-au-Prince, which was founded a century ago. He also had the opportunity to meet with Lemoine of the Editorial Department. Belardet was very happy with his visit as it greatly improved his knowledge of journalism. Belardet is pictured on the right with Lemoine of the Editorial Department.

Bernadin Kenndy, future engineer, is studying topographic mapping. Pictured left, he is topographing the Petit Goave, a coastal community southwest of Port-au-Prince.

Your continued support is what allows Brother Joseph to provide the accompaniment that these young men receive to improve life for themselves and for Haiti.

MÈSI, BONDYE, MÈSI; THANK YOU, GOD, THANK YOU.
